4.1 Title to, and ownership of, all copyright in the Work shall remain with DACS or the Artist.

4.2 All rights, whether now existing or created or discovered in the future and howsoever arising, which are not expressly granted to the Licensee under this Agreement are expressly reserved to DACS or the Artist (as applicable). The Licensee shall not assert or represent to any person that it has any right, title or interest in the Work or any part of the Work other than the rights expressly granted under this Agreement.

No Alterations to Work

4.3 The Licence does not include the right to alter or adapt the Work (other than to copy the Work into a different format in accordance with exigencies of the electronic copying, storage or delivery process or as otherwise agreed in writing with DACS).

4.4 Nothing in this Agreement shall affect the moral rights of the Artist nor shall it be interpreted as a waiver of any moral rights of the Artist where subsisting.

No Promotional Use

4.7 The Licensee shall not use the Work or part of the Work in such a way as to imply approval or endorsement of the Licensee or any third party, or in any promotional message, save that:

The Licensee shall not commence any communication of the Digital Publications to the public until such approval is given in writing by DACS. After such Samples have been approved, the Licensee shall not depart therefrom in any material respect without the prior written consent of DACS.
- 7.2 No later than one month after the Digital Publication has been made available to the public, the Licensee shall submit to DACS the Samples. The Licensee shall provide further copies of the Digital Publication during the Term, if requested by DACS on behalf of the Artist from time to time. - 7.3 The Licensee shall use its best endeavours to ensure that the colour of the digital copies of the Work matches the colour of the original Work.

8. Licensee's Service Providers

The Licensee agrees and undertakes to DACS that, if it wishes to have a Digital Publication or any component, element or part thereof which features the Work copied, stored, Cached, Hosted or communicated to the public by a Service Provider, the Licensee shall use its best endeavours to ensure that each Service Provider observes all of the restrictions set out in this Agreement applicable to the protection of the Work and all rights therein and that the Service Provider does not sell or offer for sale the Digital Publication or any component, element or part thereof which features the Work to any person other than the Licensee.

9. Advance and Royalties

- 9.1 The Licensee shall pay to DACS the Advance within 30 days from the date of invoice, unless agreed otherwise with DACS in writing.
- 9.2 Subject to recouping the Advance from Royalties, the Licensee shall, following recoupment, pay to DACS the Royalties as set out below.

- 9.3 The Royalties shall be based on the number of Digital Publications sold by the Licensee. A Download of a chapter of the Digital Publication shall be dealt with for the purposes of determining Royalties as a Download of the full Digital Publication.
- 9.4 The Licensee may not make any further deductions (including provisions against uncollected or uncollectible amounts, costs, overhead, etc) whatsoever from the amounts due to DACS.
- 9.5 The Licensee shall be entitled to give away no more than ten copies of the Digital Publication for the purposes of publicity and review, and no Royalty shall be payable on such copies given away.

10. Reporting and Payment

- 10.1 Within 28 days of the end of each Royalty Period (and within 28 days after the date of termination or expiry of this Agreement) and as long as the Licensee or any of its Associates receive any monies or other benefits arising from the exploitation of the Licence, the Licensee shall provide a statement to DACS setting out:
- (a) the number of copies of the Digital Publication sold during the relevant Royalty Period and the price of the same;
 - (b) the number of copies of the Digital Publication given away for publicity or review purposes; and

- 10.2 Upon receipt of the Royalty Statement, DACS shall issue an invoice for any sums set out as due, and the Licensee shall make payment of the same within ten days of receipt of such invoice.
- 10.3 All payments shall be remitted by the Licensee in GBP (sterling) payable to DACS by cheque or by bank transfer to a bank account nominated by DACS. All currency exchange fees, remittance fees or other charges connected with payments by the Licensee hereunder shall be borne by the Licensee and shall not be deducted from the amount due to DACS.
- 10.4 All sums payable by the Licensee are net of VAT and any other Sales Taxes, which shall, where appropriate, be payable by the Licensee in addition to the Advance / Royalties.
- 10.5 Where the Licensee is required by any law for the time being in force to withhold from payments due hereunder any tax of whatsoever kind, the Licensee shall account for such tax properly and shall also supply to DACS at such times as it may request such information as the Licensee shall have been able to obtain concerning:

- 10.6 Without prejudice to any other right or remedy of DACS, and without imposing an obligation to accept late payment, where any fees payable under this Agreement are not paid within 30 days of the due date, DACS shall exercise its statutory right to claim interest under the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998.

10.7 Acceptance by DACS of any sums shall not prevent DACS at any later date disputing the correctness of the sums paid or demanding particulars from the Licensee concerning the amount finally due, and neither shall acceptance of any sum by DACS constitute a waiver of any breach of any term of this Agreement by the Licensee if any such breach shall have taken place.

11. Auditing and Reporting

11.1 The Licensee shall, on written request, give to DACS any information as to its use of the Licence which DACS may reasonably require.

11.3 The Licensee agrees to keep during, and for a period of two calendar years following the end of, the Term full complete and accurate records of all sales of the Digital Publication and of all uses made of the Work, such records being at all times sufficient to establish and follow through an audit trail.

11.4 On written request by DACS, the Licensee will provide, within 30 days of such a request, a statement from independent auditors (to be appointed by DACS) certifying the number of copies of the Digital Publication that have been sold during the Term to enable DACS to verify that the appropriate Royalties have been paid. Where the certified statement discloses a discrepancy in the sum payable to DACS to the detriment of DACS, the Licensee shall (without prejudice to any other right or remedy of DACS) forthwith pay such discrepancy, together with interest on such discrepancy, from the date on which it should have been paid until the date on which it is actually paid, calculated at an annual rate in accordance with the provisions of the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998.

11.5 The cost of obtaining the certified statement shall be borne by DACS unless the statement discloses an underpayment of 10% or more, in which event the Licensee shall bear such cost.

12. Credits

The Licensee shall ensure that the Credit appears on or in each copy of the Digital Publication with reasonable prominence. By way of illustration, the inclusion of the Credit either adjacent to the licensed reproduction of the Work or any of them, or in the acknowledgements page of the Digital Publication shall constitute reasonable prominence.
